

Royal Victorian Aero Club, 36th Dawn Patrol...PRESS RELEASE

Sunday 13th September 2015, the Royal Victorian Aero Club will host it's 36th annual Dawn Patrol. The event commemorates the greatest air battle, Battle of Britain, September 1940. It also a tribute to all aviators, in all theatres of war, that paid the ultimate sacrifice.

This years Dawn Patrol is significant as we observe the 75th anniversary of this famous air battle. Renowned Spitfire and reliable Hurricane played major roles in this epic air battle.

The morning commences with a dawn flight over the Shrine, Point Cook and around the bay. This is followed by a traditional aviators big breakfast, entertainment, big band, plus sensational vocalist Georgia Wilkinson. (Sound of Music and Phantom of the Opera) Special guest speaker Wing Commander ret. Max Loves.

Aircraft display airside , consisting of PC9 Roulette, Trojan, Stearman, Corsair, Mustang, Nanchang, Tiger Moth, Antonov An2. An exceptional collection of aircraft, and warbirds, rarely seen*.

Joy flights may be available on the day. Plus the Victorian Military Vehicles Club, will have some wartime vehicles on display. So a very full morning with lots to see.

To be apart of this special morning, or for more information, contact Royal Victorian Aero Club Operations, phone 03 8586 7777, or www.rvac.com.au

* warbirds participation list is subject to operational and weather issues, may change without notice